Center for Civil and Human Rights to Announce Site Location

What: Center for Civil and Human Rights site announcement and dedication ceremony.

A ceremony will be held on September 15 at 10 a.m. to dedicate the official site of the future Center for Civil and Human Rights (CCHR). In late 2005, Mayor Shirley Franklin commissioned a working group, staffed by Central Atlanta Progress, to develop the vision and concept for an Atlanta-based Center to commemorate Atlanta and Georgia's contribution to the ongoing struggles for Civil and Human Rights. Three years in the making, the dedication will acknowledge how this vision is becoming a reality. The Center is slated to break ground in 2009.

When: Monday, Sept. 15, 2008, Rain or Shine

Time: Media Check-in: 9:30 a.m. – 10:15 a.m.

All media representatives must register in advance of the event. See the Media Registration Form following the Media Alert.

Dedication Ceremony: 10:30 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.

Where: The Ellipse at Pemberton Place
Located between the World of Coca-Cola and the Georgia Aquarium

Complimentary parking is available in The World of Coca-Cola parking deck located at 126 Ivan Allen Jr. Boulevard.

Speakers: Atlanta Mayor Shirley Franklin, The Coca-Cola Company Chairman and Atlanta Committee for Progress Chairman Neville Isdell, CCHR Executive Director Doug Shipman, Daughter of Civil Rights Leader Andrea Young

Visuals: In addition to the keynote speakers, the event will feature the unveiling of the Center's location indicator.
